FOREWORD

With the passage of years, we hope you will look back upon four years of varied experiences. To preserve a record of these moments and the countless other experiences of you and your classmates, this annual strives to capture the "eyes" and "mind" of the scholarship, the leadership, the activities, and the character of Brown County High School.

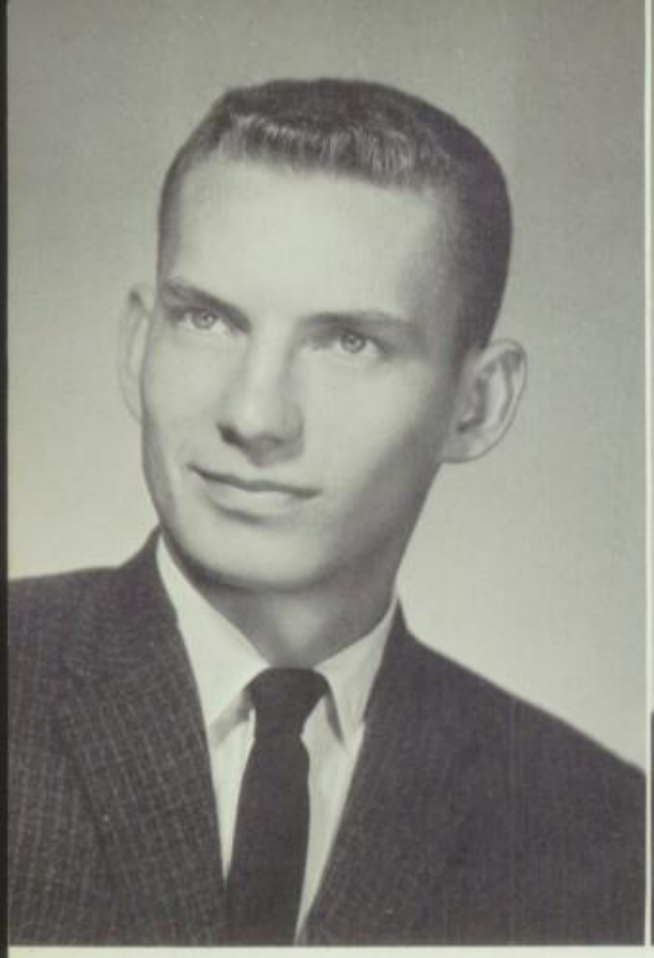
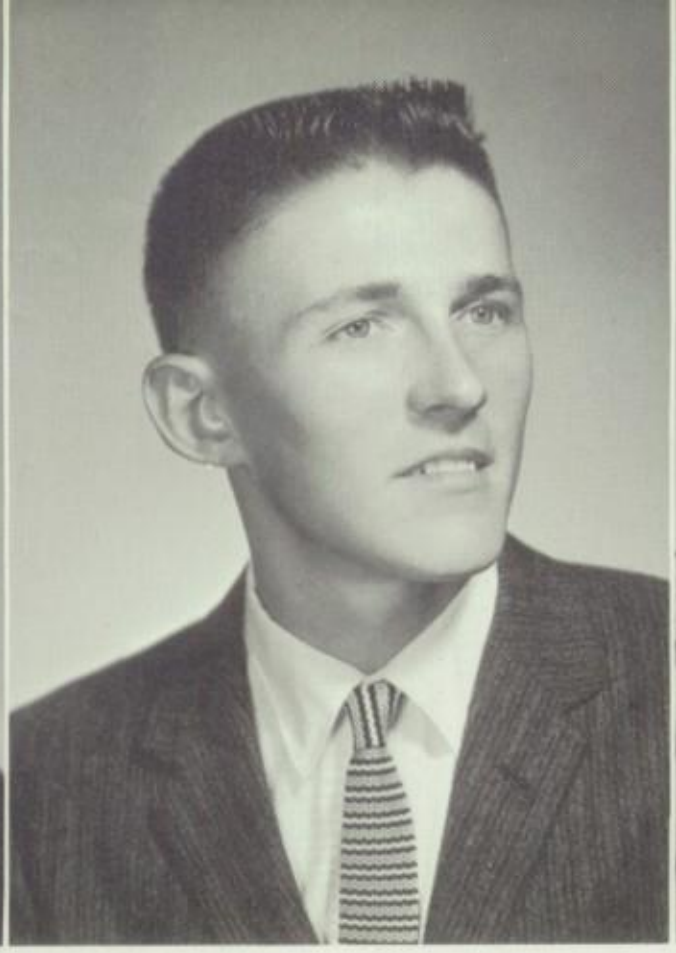
DEDICATION

We, the Rambler staff of 1961, dedicate this edition of the Rambler to Mr. Robert Schlabach. His ability as a band director has brought considerable recognition to Brown County High School. Because of his cheerfulness and wonderful sense of humor he is a favorite of the students and faculty.

SENIORS



ROBERT EUGENE KEYES, President
They say better men than I have lived but I doubt it.



RONNIE LEROY McCASKILL, Vice-President
Sleepy in study hall, sleepy in class, but wide awake at night.

DORE MAE EGGEMEYER, Secretary
She is always laughing and never has a cross word for anyone.

SENIORS

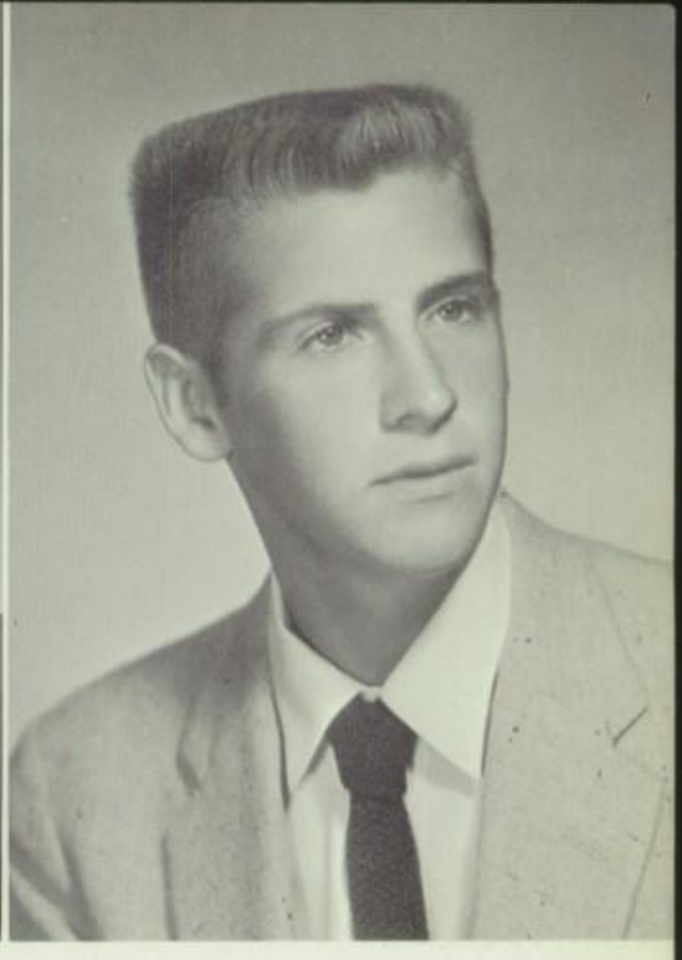
SHARON MOODY, Treasurer
A cute little blond with a pleasing personality.

RICHARD ALSUP, Reporter
A good natured guy with a good natural smile.

LINDA SIGMON, Student Council
The tasks of every day, she meets in a quiet way.

STAN ROGER BAKER
Studiously inclined, but not often.

TWILA KAY BAUCH
Bright as a ray of sunshine.



DALE RAY BRIDGEWATER
An artist; he draws the girls.

JOHN RICHARD CLARKE
Looks wise, but says nothing.

KAY ELLEN CLEAVES
Kay is pretty in two ways, pretty nice and pretty apt to stay that way.

EDITH NELL COOK
A gal who is as carefree as a breeze.

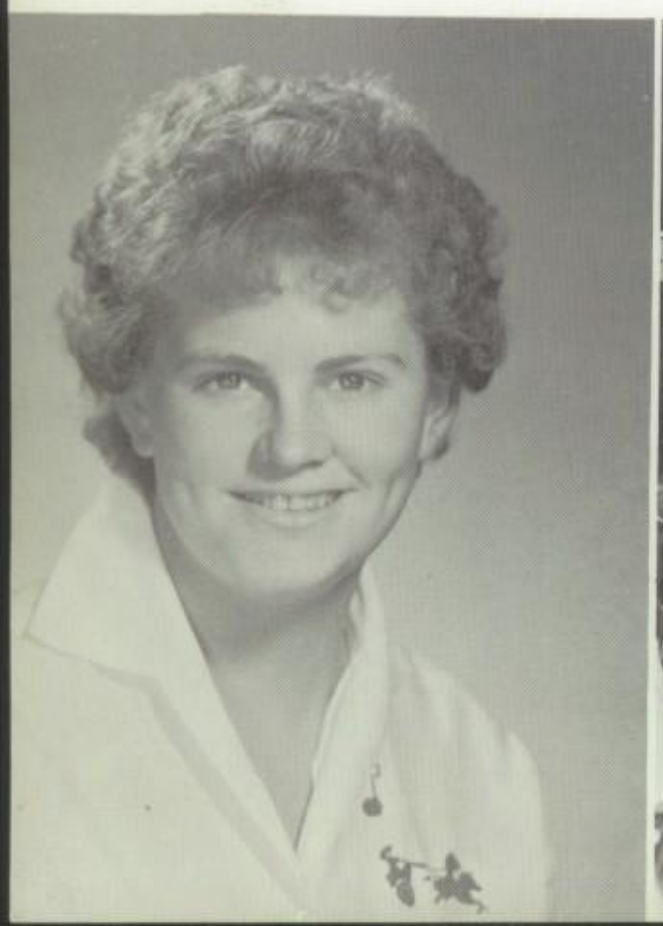
She's a pretty blonde as you can see, and what a personality!

JUDITH ANN CRAWFORD
Like granulated sugar, sweet and refined.

JUDY LYNNE DAVIS
Love is a dream, gosh I'm sleepy.

SENIORS

JUDY ANNE FERGUSON
A hundred words a minute--no typewriter.



JEANETTE SUE GLASGOW
I live for fun and fun I have.

RODGER JEROME GOTHAM
I can resist anything but temptation.

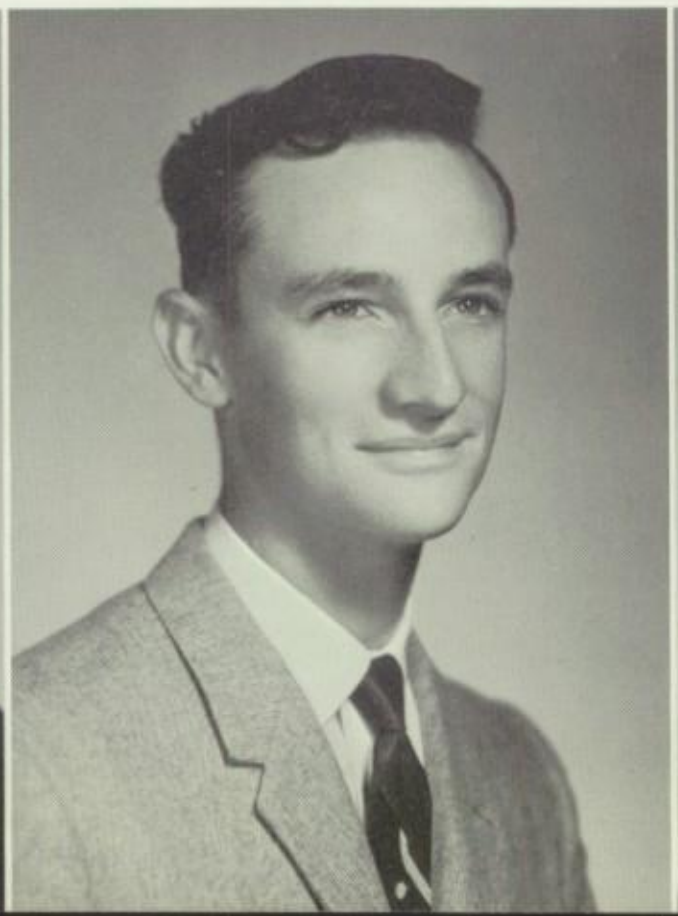
NANCY JANE GRADY
The type of person we like to know.

SENIORS

JIM D. GREGORY
Sometimes I sit and think; Most of the time I just sit.

JERRY MORRIS GROSS
I could be good, I would be good, but gee.

ELLEN LOUISE GUSTAFSON
Generally speaking--she is generally speaking.



ELIZABETH JANE HARMAN
Who says studying isn't fun.

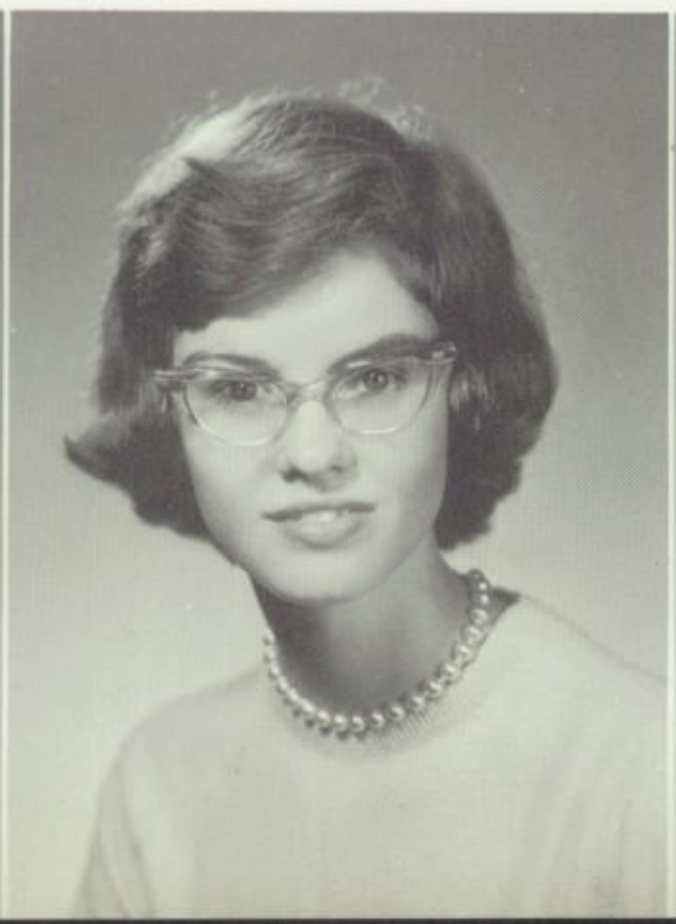
SHIRLEY MARIE HENDRICKS
She takes life as it comes.

CHRISTINE B. HOFMAN
Women are wiser than men because they know less and understand more.

SENIORS

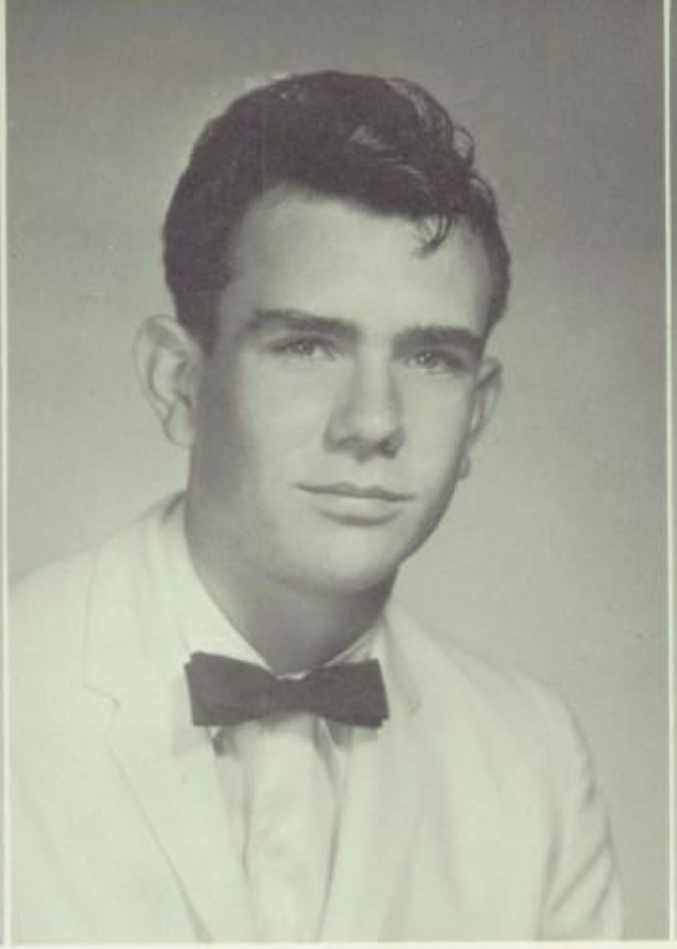
DORIS ONIETA HUNTER
Friendly to all, hostile to none.

LINDA LEE INGRAM
It is a quiet worker who succeeds.



DOROTHY IRENE KENNEDY
A quiet charm, a pleasant way.

RICHARD NEAL KERLEY
It's nice being tall, you're closer to heaven.



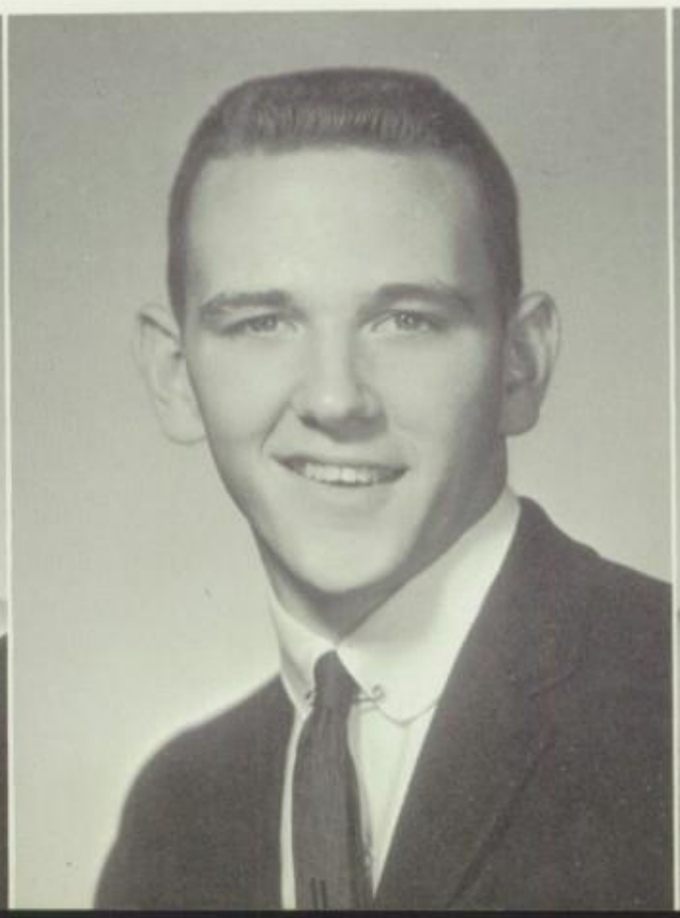
GARY LEE KINDHART
Believes in being seen, not heard

LARRY THEODORE KURFMAN
Work never bothers me, I just sit and watch it.

SENIORS

CAROL DIAN LOGSDON
But I am impatient; I want to laugh now.

JOHN ARTHUR McCOY
The less I learn the less I have to remember.



DIANA JEANETTE MAYFIELD
Every little girl has a giggle of her own.

SUE ANN NELSON
She turns nightime into daytime with the sunshine of her smile.

WARREN ALBERT NEWELL
As sure an aim, as stout an arm, ever saved the score from harm.

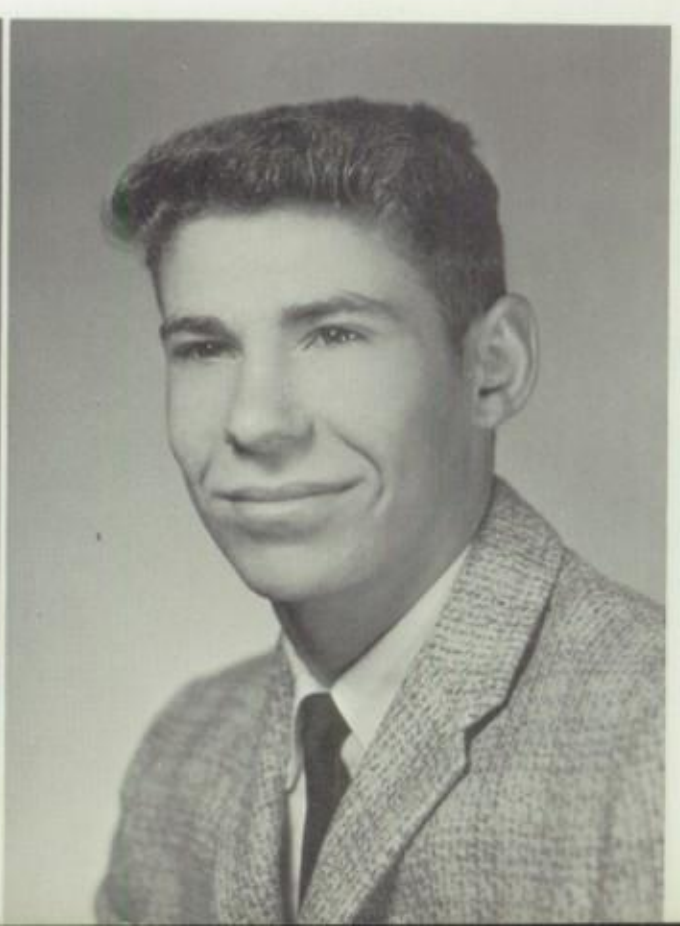
CAROLYN SUE NORVELL
Quiet but not shy.

SENIORS

LINDA SUE PARKER
Sometimes serious, sometimes gay; knows when to work and when to play.

LAURA KAREN PATTERSON
Smiling faces are the style and Laura has one all the while.

DAVID WILLIAM PEACOCK
I know a lot, but I just can't think of it.



LINDA SUE PHELPS
Quiet and neat--pleasant to meet.

RICHARD LYNN REISCHE
Quiet and innocent! (But so is dynamite at times).

PHILLIP GORDON REISCHE
I wish the fellow who invented work had finished it.

SENIORS

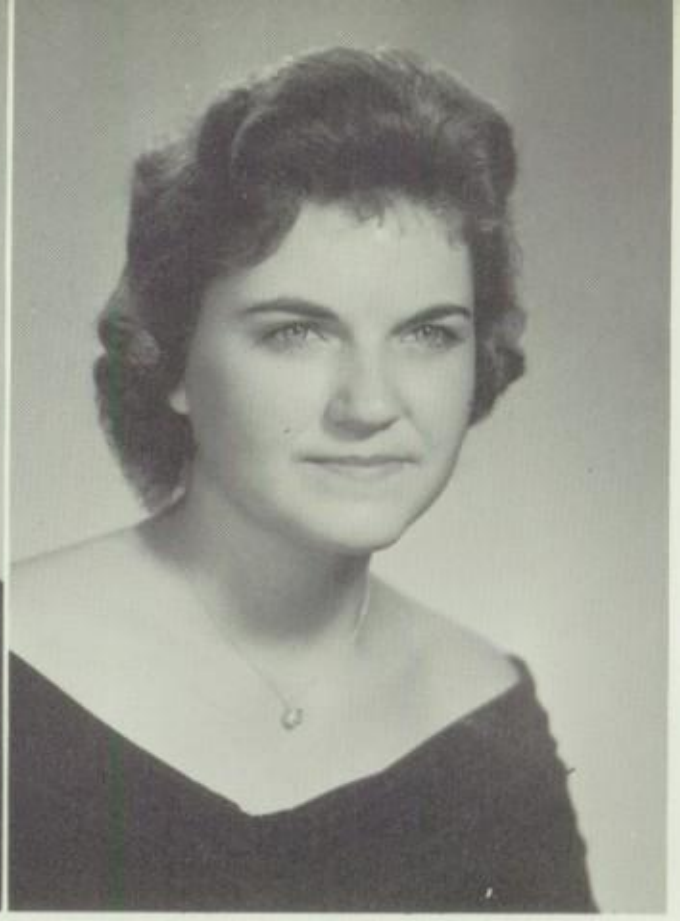
BARBARA KAY RIGG
Being cheerful must be her motto.

MARY ANN ROE
Brains, wit, personality--A rare combination.

SHIRLEY ANN ROSE
Guess what! A quiet woman!

MARY ANN ROSS
She's a little lady with lots of pep, and the best little sport we've ever met.

ROBERT WAYNE SECKMAN
There never was a saint with red hair.



ELIZABETH KAY SHIELDS
Her eyes mirror a beautiful mind.

SENIORS

JANET GAYE SHOOPMAN
I can be quiet if necessary, but it's an awful strain.

CARL RODGER TAYLOR
Beware! I may yet do something sensational.

MARTHA MARIE TONGATE
A little quiet, a little shy, a little girl not so high.

MILDRED ANN TRAMMELL
A friend to all who know her.

FLOYD THOMAS TRAVIS
Tut, tut, my man, girls won't hurt you.

RAE ALLEN VEITH
Onward, Onward, time in thy flight, and make the bell ring before I recite.

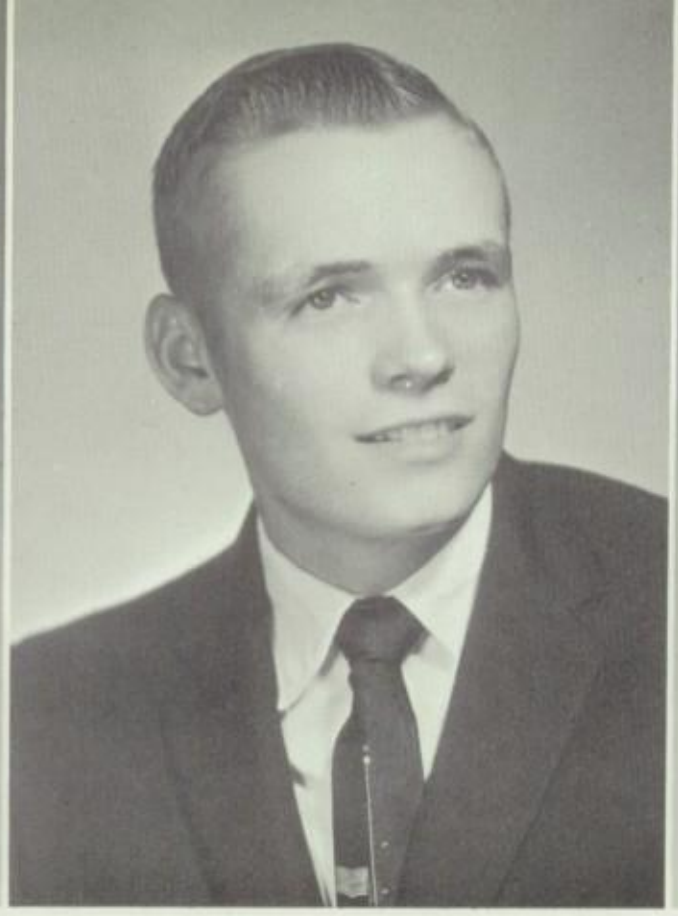
SENIORS

LARRY ALFRED WAGNER
If you don't know the answer ask Larry--he will.

NORMA JEANE WAINMAN
She's bashful--ha! ha!

CONNIE KAY WEAVER
Always gay and full of fun.

KENNETH LEE WELTY
A little mischief now and then is relished by the best of men.



LUTHER DELBERT WELTY
Few as nice as him come this way.

MARTHA JEAN WHITE
With big brown eyes, she's very pretty, and we might add that she's quite witty.

SENIORS

KAREN JEAN WHITED
She always did her best--that was plenty.

HELEN ANN WILSON
A sparkling beauty and charm are hers.

SHARON ANN ZIPSE
A steady worker is sure to gain success.

Incredible!

Where's that--diploma?

Hi, David!

Well, it's about over!

Trio from first row bleachers, west side.

A good breath before we go.

The Quincy bound trio.
